NATION AWAITING ROOSEVELT'S PLAN FOR LEGISLATION

Await Translation of Victory
Into Submission of Program To Congress

TO TAKE VACATION

Relief Appropriation; Further
Increase National Debt
Limitation

By William K. Hutchinson
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—(INS)—The American people, relaxing from the greatest exhibition of suffrage in all human history, today awaited President Roosevelt's translation of his smashing third term victory into a legislative program for submission to a re-elected Democratic Congress.
Rumors prevail that the President will ask his leaders to adjourn the dying Congress next week, while he takes a vacation before drafting a third New Deal program for submission to Congress in January. The new program must include a relief appropriation, since present funds expire February 1st, and a further increase of the national debt limitation beyond $60,000,000,000. There probably will be a new tax bill, too, to raise increased revenue to help pay for expanding national defense.

The President's third term victory Tuesday brought forth the greatest exhibition of balloting in all time. Final tabulations undoubtedly will show the President received around 27,500,000 votes, and Wendell Willkie, defeated Republican nominee, around 23,500,000—for a total in excess of 51,000,000.

The President may possibly run a bit short, however, of his 1936 total of 27,476,673, but Willkie will have received more votes than any other Republican nominee in American history and far more than any other man ever defeated for the Presidency. Former President Herbert Hoover won 21,392,190 in his 1928 victory, while Alf M. Landon received only 16,678,583 while losing in 1936.

Another Vessel Sunk

By International News Service
Berlin, Nov. 7.—German warplanes and long-range guns sank one British vessel and damaged seven others while aerial fighting craft brought down nine RAF planes, it was officially announced today.

While long-range guns on the German-held coast burst forth with terrific bombardment directed at a British convoy, Nazi warplanes continued heavy attacks on Britain, the state-meat said.

Hit By Policeman's Bullet

Philadelphia, Nov. 7.—John Haughey, 18, of this city, was wounded in the right leg today by one of several bullets fired by Patrolman Joseph Freedman and Hugh Duffey at a man trying to escape in a stolen taxicab. After overtaking the cab, police arrested a youth who identified himself as William Caplas, 22, of Philadelphia.

Penna. House Democratic

Harrisburg, Nov. 7.—Pennsylvania's Republican State Administration today found itself suddenly shorn of half its powers, with the House of Representatives preponderantly Democratic in the wake of President Roosevelt's shattering blow against the State G. O. P.

The dilemma of a politically split Legislature facing the administration of Gov. Arthur H. James during its final two years was not lessened any by the fact the G. O. P. managed to strengthen its hold on the upper house. The Republican majority of 50 in the House was swept away and replaced by a Democratic majority of 44. The membership of the 1941 House will now be composed of 126 Democrats (21 more than a majority) and 32 Republicans, in place of the 129 Republicans and 79 Democrats of the present House.

Considering the otherwise devastating effects of the Democratic victory in Pennsylvania in Tuesday's election, the G. O. P. managed to do amazingly well in the State Senate, gaining five seats. The 1941 Senate will be composed of 31 Republicans and 19 Democrats, in place of the present membership of 26 Republicans (a bare majority) and 24 Democrats.

ONLY 3 DAYS REMAIN IN HIGH CREDIT PERIOD

This is Time for Contestants
To Get Extra
Credits

ENDS ON SAT. EVENING

Only three days remain of the high credit period in the "Junior Popularity Election." Three days to make your favorite a leader on the honor roll. This first period of higher votes is naturally the most important of the entire contest because the votes to be issued on both Courier subscriptions and merchants' coupons will never be higher during the competition. Promptly at 10 o'clock on Saturday evening the ballot box in contest headquarters, 120 Wood street, will close. All subscriptions and coupons in at that time will receive the highest votes of the entire contest.

After the count, last evening, James Howard Kirk retained his first position by a very narrow margin. He is closely followed by George Foerst, then by Wayne Shemely in third place, and Raymond Tisone who moved from eighth position to fourth. The leaders are virtually tied and the week-end count may see a new leader. In fact, the top ten on the honor roll are so close that any one of them is in a position to take the lead Saturday.

BRISTOL MAN HURT AS CAR AND TRUCK CRASH

William Admason Taken To Trenton Hospital; Sedan

DAMAGE NEW STANDARD

MORRISVILLE, Nov. 7.—A new traffic standard, one of two of which were to be placed in operation today, was considerably damaged, and one man injured, when a truck and sedan crashed this morning at 6.15 o'clock, at the corner of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia avenues.

The injured man is: William Admason, 33, of Lincoln avenue, Bristol, possible fracture of the ribs, and cuts on his face.

Admason, who was a passenger in a sedan operated by Almerindo Sozio, Washington street, Bristol, was taken to St. Francis' Hospital, Trenton, N. J., by a passerby.

The other vehicle involved was a truck operated by Joseph Altorto, Starkey Farms. The truck was considerably damaged, and the passenger car demolished. Both were towed to a local garage.

The crash occurred, according to chief of police Albert Cooper, as Ritorto drove south on Pennsylvania avenue, and Sozio proceeded east on Philadelphia avenue. The machines crashed at the intersection it is said, then struck the new traffic standard on the curb.

The two, it is stated, will be summoned by authorities on charges of reckless driving.

Big Ovation for Roosevelt

By International News Service
Washington, Nov. 7.—President Roosevelt was given a wild ovation by a great multitude of more than 300,000 people today as he returned to Washington to lead the drive for national unity in a war-torn world.

The vast throng overflowed the broad plaza of Union Station to line four and five deep—historic Constitution and Pennsylvania avenues, the President's route from the station to the White House.

After waiting in the private car of his special train for a few minutes to greet his wife and government officials, President Roosevelt, accompanied by Vice-President-elect Wallace, went to the Union Station plaza to make a short speech. He said:

"My old friends of Washington, I think this means a great deal to both Mr. and Mrs. Wallace and to my wife and myself. It isn't as though we were new people. Your coming out after all these years means we get on pretty well."

"I want to tell you how very happy we both are to be back here for just a little longer. As you know we like farm life, but of all cities, if we had to live in a city, we would rather that it be in Washington."

EXONERATE AUTOIST OF BLAME FOR MAN'S DEATH

Coroner's Inquest Held Here
Yesterday Afternoon, 18
Hours After Accident

AT MORRISVILLE

An inquest was held here yesterday afternoon within 18 hours after a man had been killed by an automobile. The accident occurred on the old Lincoln Highway at Westover, near Morrisville.

The victim of the accident was identified as John Damiter, address unknown. At first Damiter was identified as a negro, but later it was stated that he was a gypsy, although the question was not brought out at the inquisition.

The driver of the car was Albert J. Moore, New York City, who, accompanied by his wife, both elderly people, were enroute to Washington, D. C. Moore is a retired railway mail clerk.

He was exonerated of blame for the accident, which was held unavoidable.

Moore told the jury that he did not see the man until he was less than ten feet away from him. Moore said that he was driving a 1929 car and that the lights were "fair." Mrs. Moore was riding on the rear seat and did not see the accident. She had recently recovered from an operation and for that reason her husband was driving slowly, not exceeding, she and her husband contended, between 25 and 30 miles per hour.

Mr. Moore said that he had been driving the same car since 1929 and did not drive over 1500 miles per year, because he could not afford it. He said Damiter appeared to have stepped off the shoulder of the road into the path of the car.

Private James R. Harris, Pennsylvania Motor Police, Oxford Valley Barracks, told of his investigation of the accident. The officer said that Moore was traveling west, that the road was dark, there being no lights at that spot. He said that the right head-light was broken indicating that the dead man had been struck by the right side of the car.

Dr. James P. Lawler, Deputy Coroner, told the jury that Damiter died of a fractured skull, that the man was without shoes, apparently walking along the road.

The jury was comprised of Arthur P. Brady, foreman; Clarence G. Young, Frank Louderbough, John Bruden, Edward Dougherty, and John H. Gullick.

Coroner H. Clayton Moyer, after the jury returned its verdict, advised Moore to have his lights improved and explained that never before had an inquest in Bucks county been held in less than 24 hours after an accident. Moore was not insured and it is presumed that because Mrs. Moore's condition the authorities held the inquest as soon as possible.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

"Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc."

No Time To Curl Up

Washington, Nov. 6. THERE, of course, is but one way to take a decisive political defeat and that is with good humor and without recrimination, bitterness or bile. In the present instance, by reason of the national emergency caused by the war abroad, it is further incumbent upon the losers to support the President-elect in his foreign policy and defense preparations.

IT is made easier to do this because it involves no wrenching of principles. Mr. Willkie is as strongly for the vital points of Mr. Roosevelt's foreign policy and as insistent upon total defense as Mr. Roosevelt or any of his aides.

An enthusiastic meeting of the workers of the annual Red Cross roll call of which Mrs. Frank Lehman, is chairman was held yesterday at the Red Cross headquarters, 120 Mill street.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. William DuFamel, local general chairman with prayer and a few words on the ideals of the Red Cross organization.

Miss Gertrude Oberholtzer, of the Southeastern Chapter of American Red Cross, addressed those present on the many-sided work of the organization, mentioning veteran service, health, domestic problems, first aid, volunteer training in home service. Bristol has the honor of being the first branch to take advantage of this training. "This year-round organization is constantly in training, helping the blind, the needy, the sick; teaching life saving, accident prevention, working indefatigably for all who need a helping hand."

Mrs. Holland, local executive secretary, reported helping in Bristol and its vicinity 161 families during the present year, giving 1013 garments and 20 layettes; making an expenditure of $1620, 136 families receiving financial assistance, with milk, surgical appliances, glasses, clothes, food and fuel. The Red Cross is the only agency in Bristol to whom those in need may be sure of finding the helping hand, she added.

The women of Bristol have sewed since Spring 800 garments, knitted 200 articles and made 831 surgical dressings. In June, a campaign for war relief was held in Bristol.

Yesterday's meeting emphasized the annual roll call, taking every November beginning with Armistice Day and lasting until Thanksgiving.

The Rev. James R. Gailey has been appointed chairman of organizations for the roll call. The Rev. Gailey addressed the workers, and expressed his belief in the efficiency of Red Cross.

TALKING TURKEY

Turkey will soon become the subject of conversation in many an American home as Thanksgiving
Day(s) approaches or approach.
Yes, sixteen states have announced, through their governors, that they will observe the traditional last Thursday in November as a day of thanksgiving, while, presumably, the other thirty-two states will go along with the New Deal or streamlined, etc., thanksgiving one week earlier.

But, regardless of the current confusion as to the date for the day of celebration, there will be a great sufficiency of turkey for those who can afford it, and the price will be reasonable.

So announces the United States Department of Agriculture, which discloses that the 1940 American turkey crop will aggregate more than 33,000,000 fowl. This is a lot of turkey, and figures up to an average of two pounds for each man, woman and child in the country. Well, two pounds isn't too much, especially when there are two turkey days to be celebrated, followed in four or five weeks, as the case may be, by Christmas.

Accompanied by tons upon tons of cranberries, sweet potatoes, filling, pumpkin pie, mince or pumpkin pie and innumerable other edibles and drinkables, this festival season will furnish a feast for Americans that would be certain to start revolutions in all totalitarian countries were it not for orthodox dictatorial censorship which prohibits news of such democratic orgies as eating—as practiced in the States States—
from penetrating the realms of Il Fuchrer, Der Duce and the Unsouped Com-missar.

TO HANG A SHOE

An Eastern newspaper is in receipt of the following letter from a reader:
"Sir—I would appreciate it very much if you would inform me the proper way to hang a horseshoe in the home."

A pause, please, in a welter of world worries to ponder a pertinent problem. If Lady Luck is to be wooed, she must needs be wooed in a way to win.

Casual inquiry leads to the conviction that two schools of thought divide control. By one school a nail is driven into the wall at a slight angle from the horizontal and the horseshoe placed over it there to be suspended simply by its own arch.
Thus is the horseshoe held to be a magnet that attracts good luck and repels bad, radiating its beneficence like a beacon.

If the shoe be considered, however, as a trap that collects luck floating thinly in the atmosphere, the heels and the open end must point skyward, for one would not set out a bucket upside down to catch the rain. Others think that a shoe is no good unless hung over a door or entrance.

Still another school insists the only lucky horseshoe is a cast one found by chance, and there are those who will declare solemnly it is but a bit of metal, useless when not nailed to an equine hoof.

The mystery of the missing Italian fleet continues to confound the Briton. A thought is that the Duce may be saving it for the 1941 maneuvers.

To cultivate a single peach cost a well-known Illinois orchardist $2,200, and this may be only a starter, if she saved his letters.

Albert R. Atkinson, Jr., Post, No. 219,
A. L., at their meeting in the Legion Home, decided to co-operate with other welfare agencies in giving assistance to Mrs. Mary Almond and her six children, who on Monday afternoon were left destitute because of a fire which not only destroyed their home at Neshaminy, but which also resulted in the destruction of all of their personal property.

The plight of the Almond family aroused the sympathy of the post members, and they immediately went into action to give some assistance. The post will make up a sum of money to be forwarded to the Doylestown branch of the Red Cross for the purchase of articles for the unfortunate family, and it was announced that some second hand furniture will also be donated.

Decision to give assistance to the Almond family was the main feature of the meeting which was attended by about 35 members and which was in charge of Captain Daniel D. Atkinson, who was installed commander of the post two weeks ago.

NATIONAL unity on foreign policy is essential, but it must not be expected that it will be accompanied either by a craven acquiescence in the wisdom and virtue of the conquering hero or an abandonment of views not agreeable to the third-term President and his satellites, newly clothed in power greater than they have dreamed.
This is still a free country—though not as free as before the Federal machine was expanded so enormously and ten million people started regularly receiving checks from the United States Treasury.
The open expression of opinions which clash with those who control the Government is still permitted. The defeated opposition is expected to show good sportsmanship, and in all matters of national defense and in foreign affairs in a critical period they owe the elected President wholehearted support.
But for the opposition to cease opposition in other directions, for it to sink away, crushed and cowed

Salute the Lemon

By BETTY BARCLAY

The average person in this country eats, drinks and makes other use of 20 lemons a year — and the variety of uses is at least 57!

When you drink hot lemonade for colds or "flu", follow through by going to bed. The early morning drink of lemon, soda and water may be warm or tepid, and is growing in popularity for health maintenance.

Lemons are prescribed for gout, rheumatism, arthritis and to build resistance to infectious such as pneumonia and tuberculosis — but they are also first aid to the cook!

She cuts lemons lengthwise into quarters for juicy garnishes, makes fancy trims with scissors; she uses them with vegetables, fish, hot or cold tea, in salad dressings and to flavor delicious puddings, cakes and pies.

The secret of that favorite desert, lemon pie, is fresh lemon juice, added to the filling after it is cooked. From appetizers to desserts, lemons bring out flavor and add zest to a meal. If you would like upon it.

ON the contrary, to cease opposing now is distinctly against the national interests. Quite clearly, opposition is more vital now than ever before. Some check — or at least some effort to check — the excesses inevitable to unrestrained power are as important to the people as is national unity on foreign policy. To thrust aside conviction, to subvert reason and accept the notion that the winner of the recent battle is right just because he won, is not required of a good loser and a patriotic citizen.

QUITE the reverse. What is required now is not for the opposition to stop opposing and the critics to curl up. Instead, they should stand more firmly and fight more strongly for what they believe right, and not be deterred because it has become more difficult and uncomfortable to do so. Therefore, it seems permissible to point out that, great as is his electoral majority, Mr. Roosevelt's popular majority is vastly reduced from that of four years ago; that if the Southern States are excluded the

"TRIAL WITHOUT JURY"

By JAMES RONALD

CHAPTER FOURTEEN

Ann took a book from the shelf at her elbow without glancing at the title and opened it at random. The printed lines were a meaningless blur before her eyes, but she stared at them and tried to concentrate.

"You would probably manage better," murmured her aunt, "if you turned it up the right way. Or is it your custom to read a book upside down?"

Without raising her eyes, Ann adjusted the book. But it might have been written in Chinese for all she understood of the lines her eyes raced along. Rancor, like a ghastly shroud, pressed murderously upon her mind.

"Sword is an oath and oaths must have their course."

Ann read the line four times before she made sense of it. Her eyes were at last breaking up the lines into words—and Ann loved words—but her brain was not yet taking the words and understanding them.

"Sword is an oath." . . . Oaths must have their course." . . . What an earth had she got hold of? King Henry the Fifth. That was Shakespeare. Well, any port in a storm.

Let's see if Shakespeare can make me forget that awful Gorgon who's sitting there giggling at me.

She read on. Reading was second nature to her and books more important than food. Under the spell of Shakespeare's glowing verse she fell into a trance in which Bardolph, Nym and Pistol, King Henry, Lord
Sceop, and Isabel, Queen of France, were real and very much alive . . .
and the world about her was as far forgotten as though it had no existence. "When Ann has a book,"
her father sometimes said, "you could shoot off a cannon at her ear and she'd never hear it." That was almost true.

Time ticked away unheeded. Her eyes devouring the pages ravenously, she saw nothing, heard nothing,
knew nothing except the pageantry of Shakespeare's characters and the drawing-on of their destinies. She was not even conscious of the irritable tap-tap-tap of her aunt's foot;
nor was she aware when the tapping ceased. . . .

A sudden piercing scream brought Ann back to earth with a jerk. It tore the air, like a cloth ripped up the middle.

Ann dropped the book and started up. In the doorway stood Miss Mimms, her meagre, black-clad frame wavering as though she were drunk. Her eyes were staring out of her wrinkled yellow face; her mouth hung foolishly open, making a round O. One bony finger, palsied, trembling, was pointing—pointing—

Pointing at the chair opposite that from which Ann had risen.
Aunt Octavia still sat in it. She had collapsed . . . completely, silently.

Her eyes were staring, her cheeks were livid. About her neck was tightly knotted a gaudy silk scarf.

"She's dead!" screamed Miss
Mimms. "Dead!"
"Yes, she's dead," said Ann mechanically. "For heaven's sake, shut up!"

At six o'clock that evening, at the close of a long day's fishing, Sheriff Black drove home in the mood for a highball, a hot bath, a good supper, and an early adjournment to bed. The Sheriff was tall, spare, broad-shouldered, a year or two over fifty. He had a lean, intelligent face, deeply lined and tanned from a lifetime spent in the open; with blunt features, a firm mouth and a squar-ish jaw, a closely-clipped moustache bristled above his upper lip.

Entering his house, Black found a constable sitting in the hall, who had been waiting there for considerably more than an hour. He sighed.
The greatest drawback to being county sheriff was that he was never able to take a day off with any certainty that he would be allowed to enjoy it in peace.

"What is it, O'Rourke? Nothing urgent, I hope?"

"Murder," replied the constable
stolidly.

"When and where?"
"The village police at Lakelawn" phoned headquarters two hours ago, Sheriff. An old lady was strangled this afternoon at a house in the village."

"Have they made an arrest?"

"No, sir."

"Come into the living room."

Black strode in ahead of his subordinate and poured himself a stiff whisky. That at least he would have, murder or no murder.

There was a deepful look on O'Rourke's face. Black jerked his head toward the bottle and the constable made haste to help himself.

"Who's on the job?" asked the sheriff, glancing over the rim of his glass.

"Inspector Burrows and Sergeant Feathers. They tried to get you on the 'phone and when they failed, the Inspector asked me to get in touch with you as soon as I could."

"I see. You drive, don't you, O'Rourke?"

"Sure."

"Know the way to Lakelawn?"

"Yes."

"Then you'd better run me over there. My car's outside. Wait a minute while I change."

In a surprisingly short time Black returned, clad in tweeds and a black felt hat and they went out to the car. The sheriff fell asleep as soon as he entered the vehicle. He awoke refreshed when it drew up at the gate of Stephen Osborne's house.

Three other cars and a motorcycle were parked at the edge of the road. At the gate stood a uniformed officer who was turning a deaf ear to the blamishment of a group of newspapermen, some of them with press cameras slung over their shoulders, who were clamouring for admittance. He saluted and stood aside to let the Sheriff go in. Black heard several cameras click as he strode up the gravel path to the front door, where another policeman was on duty. He cocked an enquiring eye at the man.

In the living room, Sheriff. The door to the left at the rear of the hall.
When Black entered the room a flash-bulb went off, lighting up the place for an instant with a blinding white flare. A plainclothes officer

OUTLINES DUTIES OF A COUNTY CONTROLLER

Bucks County Will Have Such An Official Because of The Increased Population

WHAT HE WILL DO

One of the questions asked occasionally since it became known that Bucks county is to have a Controller, as the result of its increased population, has been "What are the duties of a Controller?"

It has been answered as follows:
Controller Charized With General Supervision And Control Of Fiscal Affairs:

The Controller shall have a general supervision and control of the fiscal affairs of the county, and of the accounts and official acts of all officers or other persons who shall collect, receive or distribute the public moneys of the county, or who shall be charged with the management or custody thereof. He may at any time require from any of them, in writing, an account of all moneys or property which may have come into their control. He shall, immediately on the discovery of any default or delinquency, report the same to the Commissioners and the Court of Common Pleas of the county, and shall take immediate measures to secure the public moneys or property, and remove the delinquent party, if in office, and not removed by the Commissioners. (1929, May 2, P. L. 1278, art. IV, S 341). 16 Purdon S 341.

Accounts Of Officers:
The Controller shall furnish the Commissioners of the county, whenever required by them, a detailed account of any officer or other person having in his possession or under his control funds belonging to the county, and shall, between the hours of ten o'clock ante meridian and two o'clock post meridian, give information respecting any of said accounts to any taxpayer of the county demanding the same.

He shall have power and authority to require each and every county officer to make a quarterly statement with respect to moneys in his possession or control as a county officer, showing the amount of cash on hand and the amount deposited in banks, banking institutions, and trust companies, together with the names of such institutions. He shall have power to examine every such account of a county officer in any bank, banking institution or trust company to verify the accuracy of the statement of such county officer, and it shall be the duty of every such bank, banking institution or trust company, its officers and agents, to furnish full information to the controller in relation to such account of such county officer. No bank, banking institution or trust company, its officers or agents, shall be subject to prosecution under other laws of this Commonwealth for disclosing any such information with respect to any account of a county officer. (As amended, 1937, March 10, P. L. 37, S 1). 16 Purdon S 342.

Custody of Valuable Documents:

The Controller shall have the custody of all title deeds to real estate owned by the county, and of all contracts entered into by or on behalf of the county, and of all books, documents, and papers relating to its financial affairs, and of all bonds and other obligations issued by said county when paid. Such bonds and other obligations, when so paid, shall be distinctly cancelled by the controller, and carefully and regularly filed, a register of which cancellation shall be kept by him in a book to be provided for that purpose. (1929, May 2, P. L. 1278, art. IV, S 343). 16 Purdon S 343.

Books Of Fiscal Affairs:

The Controller shall keep a full and regular set of books, in detail, by double entry, of all the fiscal operations of the county, embracing as many accounts under appropriate titles as may be necessary to show distinctly and separately all the property of the county, its receipts, and expenditures, and all debts and accounts due by the county officers or others, and amount raised from each source of revenue, and the expenditures in detail and classified by reference to the objects thereof. He shall prescribe the form and manner of keeping the books and papers used by each of the officers of said county in connection with the fiscal affairs of the county. (1929, May 2, P. L. 1278, art. IV, S 344). 16 Purdon S 344.

Report To Common Pleas: Publication: Financial Report To Department Of Internal Affairs:

He shall, in the month of January in every year, make a report, verified by oath or affirmation, to the Court of Common Pleas of said county, of all receipts and expenditures of the county for the preceding year, in detail, and classified as required in the preceding section of this act, together with a full statement of the financial conditions of the county. Such report shall thereupon be published one time in such newspapers published in said county as the controller may direct, the aggregate cost of which shall not exceed one thousand five hundred dollars in any one year, to be paid for out of the county treasury. Such report may also be published in printed pamphlets at the cost of the county. The number and cost of such pamphlets to be determined by the controller and the county commissioners.

The controller shall also, annually, within sixty days after the close of the fiscal year, make a report to the Department of Internal Affairs of the financial condition of the county in manner and form required to be made by the auditors of the county under the provisions of section three hundred sixty-four of this act, and subject to the penalties provided in said section for refusing or neglecting to make said report. (As amended 1931, June 9, P. L. 461, S 1; 1935, July 18, P. L. 1184, S 1). 16 Purdon S 345.

Preparation Of Annual Budget:

On or before the first day of February of each year, and at least thirty days prior to the adoption of the annual budget, the controller shall transmit to the Commissioners a proposed budget giving a detailed estimate of and for the legitimate purposes of the county for the current year, including interest due and to fall due on all lawful debts of the county bearing interest. Such budget, when finally adopted by the Commissioners, shall be the guide to the Commissioners in fixing the tax rate. Said budget shall be prepared as provided in section three hundred seventy of this act.

The Commissioners shall, at the same time the budget is adopted, fix such rate of taxation upon the valuation of the property taxable for county purposes as will raise sufficient sum to meet the said expenditures. The Commissioners shall not, by contract or otherwise, increase the expenditures of the county in any year to an amount beyond the taxes assessed as aforesaid for said year. (As amended 1935, July 18, P. L. 1184, S 2). 16 Purdon S 346.

Duty Of Treasurer: Receipts Of Money For Counties:

The County Treasurer shall receive all moneys due or accruing to the county. He shall keep a just and true account of all moneys received and disbursed. The books of the treasurer shall at all times during office hours enter or to sustain a surcharge for be open to the inspection of the controller. He shall report daily to the controller all moneys received by him for the county, the person by whom, and on what account they were paid. The treasurer shall give his receipt for all moneys paid into the county treasury. Such receipts shall be countersigned by the controller, who shall keep an accurate record of the same. (1929, May 2, P. L. 1278, art. IV, S 347). 16 Purdon S 347.

Contracts:

All contracts made by the Commissioners of any county involving an expenditure exceeding one hundred dollars, except contracts for building, rebuilding, or repair of bridges, or for painting or tightening the bolts of iron bridges as hereinafter provided for, shall be in writing, and shall, immediately after their execution, be filed with the Controller. No contract shall be made, nor the payment there- of certified, by the Controller for over three hundred dollars, unless made with the lowest and best bidder, after due notice to be published by the Controller when directed by the Commissioners, if he approves the purpose of the proposals invited. All bids shall be received by the Controller under seal and shall be opened in his presence by the Commissioners and the contracts awarded thereon. The Controller shall keep a record of all such awards, and shall certify no warrants for contracts not made agreeably thereto: Provided, however, That on an appeal heretofore or hereafter taken from a Controller's report, the court shall not be required to, and shall not be required to, enter or to sustain a surcharge for failure to comply with the provision of this section, where it appears that the County Commissioners acted honestly and in good faith for the best interests of the county, and where no loss or damage resulted to the county from such non-compliance. (As amended 1935, May 7, P. L. 143, S 1). 16 Purdon S 348.

Advertisement Of Proposed Awards Of Contracts Financed By F. C. W. A.:

Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, it shall not be necessary for any city, county, borough, incorporated town, township, school district or poor district to advertise for a period longer than five days any proposal to award any contract for the lease or purchase of tools, equipment, materials or supplies which shall be necessary for and are to be used in carrying out any public works project which is being financed by funds granted by the Federal Civil Works Administration. (1933, Sp. Sess. Dec. 22, P. L. 108, No. 24, S 1). 16 Purdon S 348a.

Other Contracts:

This act is enacted as an emergency measure to facilitate the acceptance by political subdivisions of the State of moneys made available for public works therein by the Federal Civil Works Administration, and it shall not affect the manner of awarding contracts for any articles purchased for any purpose other than use on projects so financed. (1933, Sp. Sess. Dec. 22, P. L. 108, No. 24, S 2). 16 Purdon S 348b.

Claims Against County:

The Controller shall scrutinize, audit and decide on all bills, claims, and demands whatsoever against the county. All persons having such claims shall first present the same to the Controller, and, if required, make oath or affirmation before him to the correctness thereof. The controller may, if he deems it necessary, require evidence by oath or affirmation of the claimant and otherwise that the claim is legally due, and that the supplies or services for which payment is claimed have been furnished or performed under legal authority. He may inquire or ascertain whether any officer or agent of the county is interested in the contract under which any claim may arise, or has received or is to receive any commission, consideration or gratuity relating thereto, or whether there has been any evasion of the preceding section of this act by making two or more contracts for small amounts which should have been in one. If he shall find that there has been any evasion, or that any such officer or agent is so interested, he shall refuse to approve the claim. All claims which he shall find legally due he shall certify to the commissioners. (1929, May 2, P. L. 1278, art. IV, S 349). 16 Purdon S 349.

Drawing Warrants:

The Commissioners shall draw no warrant on the treasury for any debt, claim or demand whatsoever, not audited and approved by the Controller as provided for in the foregoing section, except for the fees of jurors, witnesses, clerks and tipstaves of the several courts of the county. The amount of said fees shall be ascertained by said courts, and entered on the records thereof, and duly certified by their respective clerks to the Commissioners, being first sworn to be true by the Controller. Said certificate shall be delivered by the commissioners to the controller for preservation as soon as the warrants are issued. (1929, May 2, P. L. 1278, art. IV, S 350). 16 Purdon S 350.

L. 1278, art. IV, S 351). 16 Purdon S 351.

RECIPES: Those Which Interest Women

More New Recipes

Each year dietitians and also housewives with a flair for cooking, discover new food combinations — and new recipes are born. Here are two from a very recent crop. I feel sure you will find them well worth trying time and time again:

Baked Orange-Glazed Ham

1 tablespoon grated orange peel
1 cup orange juice
1 cup brown sugar
Orange slices

Parsley

Place a ham, fat side up, in uncovered roaster. Bake in slow oven (300 degrees F.) 25 to 30 minutes per pound. Forty-five minutes before ham is done remove rind and pour off most of fat in pan. Score the fat surface in diagonal lines with a sharp knife. Decorate with cloves. Blend the grated peel, orange juice and sugar. Spread mixture over surface of ham. Return to oven and baste frequently with mixture in pan. Serve garnished with whole thin slices of oranges and parsley. Allow $\frac{3}{4}$ to 1 $\frac{1}{3}$ pound per serving.

Orange Cranberry Relish Salad

2 oranges
1 lemon
2 apples
1 pound (4 cups) fresh cranberries
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cups sugar

Quarter unpeeled oranges, lemon and apples, remove seeds and core and put through food chopper. Combine, add sugar and blend. Let stand a few hours. Use a relish with meats, hot or cold.

Broiled Halibut

2 pounds halibut sliced 1-inch thick
Salt and pepper
Oil

Procure one or more slices of fish, cut or pull off the skin, rub with salt and pepper and brush with oil. Then broil in a double wire gridiron from six to ten minutes, according to the heat, turning the gridiron frequently. When done lay the fish on a hot platter and turn oyster sauce over it.

Satisfactory Salads

A satisfactory salad is one that may be prepared easily from foods on hand or easily obtainable; one that looks good; one that tastes good; one that is healthful; and one that is economical.

Here are two salad recipes, either of which will enable you to serve just this kind of salad:

Luncheon Salad

2 cups cooked, diced Limas
2 tablespoons minced pimiento or sweet red pepper
4 hard-cooked eggs
4 peeled tomatoes
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup French dressing

Add minced pimiento to Limas and mix with French dressing. Arrange on lettuce leaves and surround with sections of tomatoes and hard-cooked eggs. Garnish with mayonnaise or cooked dressing.

Savory Lima Salad

2 cups cooked, dried Limas
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup finely cut celery
2 small green onions
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
2 hard-cooked eggs
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
1 cucumber, sliced
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
Combine all ingredients and mix hour.

with highly seasoned French dressing. Arrange on lettuce leaves.

WALK FOR HEALTH

PHILADELPHIA—(INS)—Walking three miles every day will strengthen your heart and lungs, according to Lawson Robertson, veteran Olympic track coach. Robertson gave this advice to a committee headed by John B. Kelly, who has been asked by President Roosevelt to organize a national physical preparedness program.

NEW TYPE MOTORCYCLE

STOCKHOLM—(INS)—A motorcycle that runs without gasoline has been invented by E. Henning, a Stockholm engineer. The engine, which is suspended around the rear wheel, is driven by charcoal gas. On one fill-up, the wheel will travel some 35 miles at a speed of between 30 and 40 miles an hour.

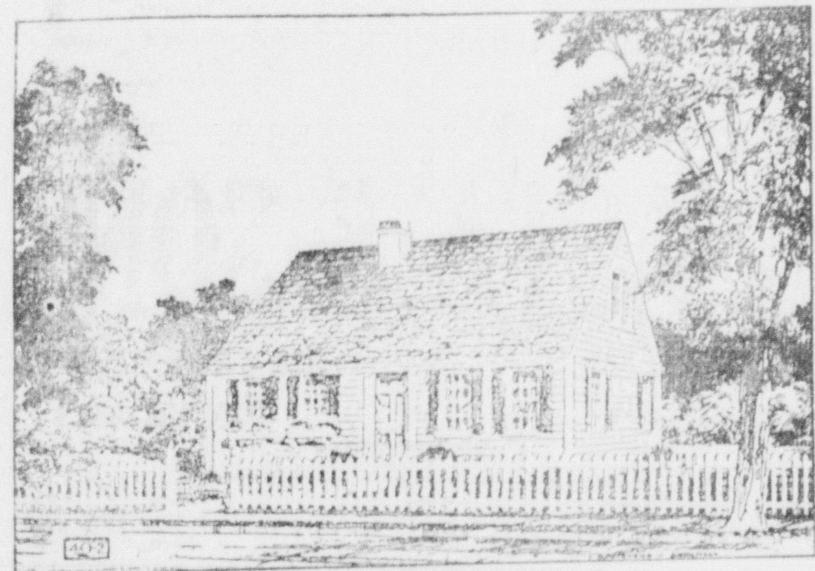

RED, WHITE BLUE LICENSES

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico—(INS)—Puerto Rico is intensely proud of the fact that it is under the Stars and Stripes, and even carries its patriotism to the extent of making the 1940 license plates red, white and blue in color.

A TWO OR THREE-BEDROOM HOME

THIS small home offers maximum space at minimum cost.

It is a story-and-a-half type containing two bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bath with an unfinished area upstairs. If this area is completed, as shown in the floor plan, two additional bedrooms become available and the smaller first floor bedroom can be made into a dining room. The house will then have three bedrooms, dining room, living room, kitchen and bath. Note that all lower floor rooms have cross-ventilation.

Plans for this house are available at $1.00 each from National Small Homes Demonstration, Inc., 1337 Connecticut Avenue, Washington, D. C. Inquiries should refer to Plan 40-2.

Infinite Father, when hope dies, life withers. To those who have lost faith, be their Hope. Help us to keep hope in command of our lives. ON THE SCREENS

BRISTOL THEATRE

The Five Little Peppers returned to the Bristol Theatre screen last night, bringing new laughs, new thrills and new heart-throbs to a delighted audience. The latest adventure of fiction's most irrepresible family is "Five Little Peppers in Trouble" and continues the rollicking antics of Margaret Sidney's beloved juvenile characters. Started by Columbia Pictures a short time ago, the Pepper series has rapidly gained in popularity.

The same talent cast that made the previous Pepper films such outstanding hits is back again in "Five Little Peppers in Trouble."

GRAND THEATRE

An enthralled audience sat on the edge of their seats at the Grand Theatre last night while they watched a brand new kind of mystery movie unfold. Entitled "Money and the Woman," the picture was adapted from a story by James M. Cain, author of that thrilling play, "The Postman Always Rings Twice." Produced by Warner Bros., the film stars Jeffrey Lynn and Brenda Marshall.

The story concerns itself with a desperate attempt to loot a bank of $90,000. Jeffrey Lynn, playing the role of a young bank executive, becomes involved in the case and is forced to solve the crime in order to clear his own name. He is helped by Brenda Marshall who is seen as the wife of one of the bank clerks.

RITZ THEATRE

Hollywood's long-smouldering feud has been quenched. All is forgiven and forgotten. Hatchets were buried with a shaking of hands and a threatened plethora of black eyes and bloody noses has been avoided.

The erstwhile enemies were the groups of boys known as the Dead End Kids and their rivals, the Little Tough Guys. Each laid claim to the title of being the toughest youngsters in the film capital.

Now they're friends. The groups were engaged to play roles in the same Universal picture.

The boys were Billy Halop, Huntz Hall, Gabriel Dell, Bernard Punsky and Bobby Jordan of the "Dead End" group, and Hally Chester, David Gorcey and Harris Berger, "Little Tough Guys."

Appropriately enough, the title of the picture was "You're Not So Tough." It is now showing at the Ritz Theatre.

ST. FRANCIS ELEVEN TO PLAY MALVERN ON EDDINGTON FIELD

Big Game Booked for Tomorrow Afternoon at Well-Known Institution

BOTH TEAMS ANXIOUS

St. Francis Boys Have Been Playing Fine Game and Are Eager To Defeat Rivals

EDDINGTON, Nov. 7.—Tomorrow afternoon, here, the Blue and Gold of St. Francis will engage the Blue and White of Malvern, the preparatory school of Villanova. Both institutions will be meeting for the first time. Game time 3.30 p. m.

The future pupils of Clipper Smith have considerable line weight and a sparkling backfield.

Spectators present for the game will see Coach Halpin's "brain-potential" crew of devastating football giants.

They hail from various sections of the country where, as high school students, they distinguished themselves scholastically and athletically.

On the gridiron, they move downfield a masterpiece of rhythmic motion, timing and blocking. Coming out of the huddle, the main line boys appear and sound like a thundering herd intent upon leaving defeat and demoralization in their wake until the final whistle makes certain their victory.

Effervescent team spirit, dash, fire and unbounding enthusiasm has gripped the entire squad and student body of St. Francis in anticipation of this game.

The little "Villanovians" have been picked by pre-game dopsters as easy winners. The locals will endeavor to wiggle out of the underdog position. They have a football team capable of giving any potential champion a real battle for title.

Probable line-up:

St. Francis	Malvern Prep.

EL-BART STILL IN LEAD OF FEDERAL LEAGUE

El Bart continued to lead Federal League, taking all four points from Grundy's. The games were close but the superior bowling of "Hetta" Tomlinson decided the match in favor of the "gin" boys.

The Y. M. A. defeated the Crescents four points. The "Zinc" boys padded their lineup with George Bailey but the Y. M. A. boys were just a little better.

The best match of the evening was played by Voltz Texaco. "Shanty-Gaff" Light lead the attack with 532. The Irish were off form in losing all points.

No. 1 "Fire Water" team defeated the Leedom boys 3 to 1. Keers of the rug makers, was high with 426. Kelter was high with 393 for Fire Co. No. 1.

ST. FRANCIS GRIDDERS CONQUER BENSLEM JRS.

EDDINGTON, Nov. 7.—St. Francis junior high school gridders conquered the Benslem junior high eleven by the score of 12 to 0, here, on Monday afternoon.

St. Francis won the toss-up and decided to receive. Johnson took the opening kickoff on his own 15-yard line and raced to the left side of the field where, on a reverse play, Edward Roach took the ball and ran it back to the 37 before being downed. Here the Blue and Gold eleven began their first offensive and after Campisi's pass had been grounded, Robert Palmore, in three plays, fought his way to Benslem's 47.

The second quarter was a scoreless affair with Benslem Juniors threatening all the way. No less than three times the young Owls were on the Rockets 12-yard line, but each time they were repulsed.

Upon the opening of the third quarter, St. Francis was more determined to score. And in nine plays had marched down to Benslem's 10-yard line. Here, on a short pass from Palmore to Golden, St. Francis registered its first counter. The try for the extra point failed.

The final quarter started with Benslem junior high taking the ball on their own 20. However, after three line plunges the Owls kicked to Palmore on St. Francis' 34. Here the fans held their breath as Palmore juggled the elusive pigskin, but gained control of it, and sped down the left side of the line. Only one man stood between the St. Francis fullback and the end zone, Thomas Golden hurtling his body through the air, removed the last obstacle, making it possible for Palmore's successful 70-yard run into pay-off territory. The point after touch-down was wide.

The Benslem boys then took to the air in a desperate but futile effort.

TWO CLUBS WITHDRAW FROM COURT LEAGUE

Two clubs withdrew from the Bristol Basketball League last night at a meeting of the circuit held in the St. Ann's A. A. club house, Wood street. The clubs were St. Ann's and the Falls Township Alumni. Franklin A. C. replaced one of the teams, leaving an opening in the league.

The managers almost completed their plans for the season and all that is necessary for the league-opening is the signing of a contract for the playing floor.

The plan of President Thomas Juno for a divisional split of the proceeds of the league was rejected, Albert Tentibucci was appointed timer, and Leonard Fallon, scorer. All teams gave in their franchise fees.

Thomas Juno presided over the meeting with Roy Fry acting as secretary.

Teams and their representatives were: Auto Boys, Vito Della; Manhattan Soap, James Dugan and Maurice Mulligan; Knights of Columbus, John O'Brien; Rohm and Haas, Joe Roe and John Cole; Fifth Ward, John Di Angelo; Franklin, Joe Testa and Profy's; Hystie Grimes and Daniel DiLorenzo.

State News

STATE COLLEGE.—(INS)—Turkeys have to get up early in the morning in order to lay eggs in winter, and it takes more than an alarm clock to get them going. They have to have lights.

says P. H. Margolf, instructor in poultry husbandry at the Pennsylvania State College.

Normally, hen turkeys lay eggs only during the long days of early spring, apparently because the extended influence of visible light rays on certain glands stimulates egg production. This characteristic was of no importance until turkeys began to be in demand as a table fowl the year around. Then it became necessary to have eggs for hatching as early in the winter as possible.

By turning on the lights in the turkey pens at four a. m., beginning in early December, Margolf has had good success in producing fertile turkey eggs by February 1st.

"I didn't realize how a touch of color could add to the effectiveness of a printed piece. One of the men at The Bristol Printing Company suggested it to me for my new matched letterheads and envelopes. By golly! You'd be surprised at the improvement!
